Civil Legal Unit, Paralegal
Job Description

The Connecticut Veterans Legal Center (CVLC) is seeking a paralegal to join its Civil Legal Unit. The CVLC’s mission is to help veterans recovering from mental illness and homelessness overcome legal barriers to housing, healthcare, and income. As a national leader in medical-legal partnerships (MLP) and legal aid to veterans, CVLC’s work often occurs where veterans law intersects with economic and racial justice, human rights, and mental health.

The Paralegal position requires an individual ready to support a team of attorneys practicing law on behalf of disabled veterans throughout Connecticut. This position will require you to support multiple attorneys working out of multiple locations (West Haven, Orange, Newington, Norwich, and other places in the community). The areas of practice include, but are not limited to, housing, Veterans Benefits, child support, public benefits, and credit/consumer defense.

About You:

- You have a passion for justice: The CLU Paralegal will have a passion for social justice issues and an enthusiasm for helping people in need.
- You like people: The CLU Paralegal must be comfortable having regular interactions over the phone and in-person with low-income and disabled clients and helping them navigate a variety of systems.
- You want to learn: One’s success will be based on being willing to learn and support multiple areas of legal practice.
- You are flexible and comfortable with technology: The CLU Paralegal needs to be comfortable working in various locations and with different computer systems. The CVLC is a paperless office, even prior to the pandemic, and needs a paralegal that has the skill set to function independently in that environment.
- You enjoy working on a team: The CLU Paralegal will need to work well not only with the Civil Legal Unit and the larger CVLC staff but also with the variety of clinicians (such as doctors, social workers, therapists, housing specialists) that we partner with to help serve our clients. You will be one part of the medical-legal team helping find and create solutions for our clients.

In this job you will be:

- Responsible for supporting a team representing clients in a variety of legal issues, both on paper and in person (court and administrative) hearings.
- Responsible for monitoring dockets and preparing CVLC’s electronic and paper filings in various venues on behalf of clients in state court, administrative agencies, and federal court in an accurate, organized and timely manner.
- Managing attorneys’ calendars, meetings and deadline schedules.
- Communicating with clients, volunteer attorneys, opposing counsel, community partners, and court clerks regarding open matters, including drafting, proofreading, scanning, faxing and mailing outgoing correspondence letters, short memos, and court documents.
- Managing incoming faxes and mail.
• Collecting client records and releases.
• Entering and maintaining accurate data in the case management system.
• Working with other CVLC practice groups to support and back-up other team members,
• Other duties as assigned.

You will also get to:
• Join CVLC’s legal team, participating in intake discussions and legal strategy meetings.
• Be an active participant in a team that seeks to change national and local policies that affect veterans.
• Work with VA and Community partners to strengthen CVLC’s Medical-Legal Partnership.

About Us:
• We are client-centered and hard-working. It is a privilege to do this work and we do our best to honor that by providing our clients with the best services possible.
• We work in a hybrid environment, with most people working from home two to three days a week.
• We are outcome-oriented and creative. The results we obtain for our clients are some of the best in legal aid and we all play a part in making that happen. Part of making that happen is by not doing things like everyone else.
• We are democratic and collegial. We all pitch in as needed. Our teamwork is a hallmark of our organization. We are boisterous and like to have fun together.

Compensation:
• Salary ranges between $45,000 and $63,000 based on experience. Benefits include 100% of health insurance premium cost for employee and 80% of premium cost for family members, a flexible saving account for medical expenses, 20 vacation days per year, 15 sick days per year, and a 403(b) retirement program, including employer contributions of 3% of the average employee salary for all participating employees.

Veterans, people of color, people with disabilities, and LGBTQ individuals are strongly encouraged to apply. CVLC will make reasonable accommodations for applicants and employees with disabilities. CVLC is proud to work with a diverse community of clients, staff, and constituents. Come join our team!

To Apply: Please submit a cover letter, resume, and a writing sample to CVLC at applicants@ctveteranslegal.org. Please be prepared to share the names, title and contact information for three references if requested. The position is open until filled. We anticipate that it will be filled quickly, so please send your materials as soon as possible.
