Welcome to Saluting Service

Dear friends,

On behalf of the staff and Board of Directors of Connecticut Veterans Legal Center, I thank you for joining us for the 17th Annual Saluting Service.

Like all of you, I am excited to hear from General David H. Petraeus and to honor him with the inaugural Benjamin Tallmadge Award. If you spend 20 years in the military, you spend a lot of time reading books about military leadership and strategy. But rarely do you get to read a book that succinctly summarizes the four key tasks of successful strategic leadership by someone who can not only illustrate how they play out in recent history, but also include first-hand experience. I was struck by his insights on why certain campaigns worked and others failed, and I look forward to hearing from General Petraeus more about the conflicts in his book and what we have seen since.

I'm also so happy to honor and highlight the work of Monte E. Frank, Esq. with the Pro Bono Partnership Award and U.S. Army Veteran Ingrid Y. Thomas, RN, with the Captain Celine A. Finn Award. You can read more about their work and the significant impact on the Veterans we serve in this digital program book.

I hope over the course of the evening, you will gain a greater understanding of the work of Connecticut Veterans Legal Center. I hope you'll also take this unique opportunity to meet or reconnect with the incredible people in this room—meeting supporters like you is something I look forward to every year.

ABOUT THE ANTHEMS

The Star-Spangled Banner is the national anthem of the United States. The lyrics originate from the Defence of Fort M'Henry, a poem written by American lawyer Francis Scott Key, with music by John Stafford Smith. It remains a powerful reminder of the cost of freedom and unifies all Americans as we continue to fight for our nation's promise.

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Lift Every Voice and Sing was a hymn written as a poem by NAACP leader James Weldon Johnson in 1900 with musical composition by his brother John Rosamond Johnson. It played a pivotable role in the Black Civil Rights campaigns in the 1960s and, much like The Star-Spangled Banner, continues to inspire us all to have hope in the vision of liberty and justice for all.

Lift every voice and sing,
'Til earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on 'til victory is won.

The POW/MIA Table

A place setting for one, a table for all

The table is round to show our everlasting concern.

The tablecloth is white symbolizing the purity of their motives when answering the call to serve.

The single red rose reminds us of the lives of those Americans, and the loved ones and friends who keep the faith, awaiting answers.

The yellow ribbon symbolizes our continued uncertainty, hope for their return and determination to account for them.

The slice of lemon
reminds us of their bitter fate,
captured or missing in a foreign land.

The pinch of salt
symbolizes the tears of our missing and their families.

The lighted candle
reflects the hope for their return.

The inverted wine glass symbolizes their inability to share a toast.

The chair is empty.
They are missing.

The Missing Soldier or POW Table is a solemn reminder of the human costs of war and a commitment that we will never forget those whose fates are still unknown.

During this evening's program we will make a toast. We welcome you to visit the table for a moment of reflection or prayer.

General, U.S. Army (Retired)

General David H. Petraeus (U.S. Army, Retired) served over 37 years in the U.S. military, culminating his career with six consecutive commands as a general officer, five of which were in combat, including command of the Surge in Iraq, command of U.S. Central Command, and command of Coalition Forces in Afghanistan. Following retirement from the military, and after confirmation by the Senate in a vote of 94-0, he served as the Director of the CIA during a period of significant achievements in the war on terror.

General Petraeus graduated with distinction from the US Military Academy and later earned a Ph.D. from Princeton University. He is the only individual to have been the top graduate of both the year-long Command and General Staff College Course and the demanding US Army Ranger School. He has held academic appointments with the US Military Academy, the University of Southern California, Harvard, Georgetown, and the City University of New York Honors College, and he is currently a Senior Fellow and Lecturer at Yale, an Honorary Professor at the University of Birmingham (UK), a member of both the Trilateral Commission and the Aspen Strategy Group, Co-Chairman of the Global Advisory Council of the Woodrow Wilson Center, Senior Vice President of the Royal United Services Institute, and an Executive Advisory Board Member of World.Minds.

General Petraeus has earned numerous awards and decorations, including four Defense Distinguished Service Medals, the Secretary of State's Distinguished Service Award, the Bronze Star Medal for Valor, two NATO Meritorious Service Medals, the Combat Action Badge, Master Parachutist Wings, and the Ranger Tab. He has also been decorated by 14 foreign countries and sanctioned by Russia, and he is believed to be the only person who, while in uniform, threw out the first pitch of a baseball World Series Game and did the coin toss at a Super Bowl.

General Petraeus is co-author with Andrew Roberts of New York Times bestseller Conflict: The Evolution of Warfare from 1945 to Ukraine.

THE BENJAMIN TALLMADGE AWARD

The Benjamin Tallmadge Award honors a Veteran who has shown continued and excellent commitment to service through public office, academia, science, or the humanities.

It is named in honor of the American military officer, spymaster, and politician who served as an officer during the Revolutionary War followed by 16 years as a member of the U.S. House of Representatives from Connecticut's at-large district. Major Tallmadge is most famous as the organizer of the Culper Spy Ring, which provided vital intelligence in the fight for our country's independence.

Connecticut Veterans Legal Center is honored to award the inagural Benjamin Tallmadge Award to General David H. Petraeus.

Captain Celine A. Finn Award

Ingrid Daniels Thomas's journey of service began in the United States Army, where she proudly served from 1983 to 1991, followed by continued service in the Army Reserves through 2008. Her military career took her to Fort Bliss, Fort Dix, Fort Huachuca, Germany, and Seoul, South Korea.

In 1996, Ingrid began her career with the VA, initially serving as a certified nursing assistant while pursuing her education. With determination and a deep commitment to caring for others, she continued her education and ultimately became a registered nurse.

Throughout her years at the VA Connecticut Healthcare System, Ingrid has dedicated herself to caring for Veterans, particularly through her work with the Women's Health Center. Ingrid's story is one of service upon service—first serving her country in uniform and then continuing that mission by caring for her fellow Veterans.

THE CAPTAIN CELINE A. FINN AWARD

In memory of U.S. Navy CAPT Celine A. Finn, who worked tirelessly on behalf of her fellow Veterans and service members for her entire life, this award is given to recognize selfless service to Veterans' holistic needs.
